

Appendix G: Template for Forming Critical Responses to Stimulus Questions

Template for Forming Critical Responses to Stimulus Questions

What do you think the question is about?

- How do you interpret it? Justify your interpretation as far as you can.
- Are there any other possible interpretations to this question?

How do you respond to this question based on your own interpretation? Elaborate your ideas with supporting details.

How do you respond to this question with reference to other possible interpretations or perspectives? Elaborate your ideas with supporting details.

Drawing together what you have written down for the above guiding questions, what is the response you would like to put forward regarding this question?

- Are there any modifications that you would like to make to your initial response?
- Have you got any new insights from probing into the issue by taking various angles into consideration?